Mayor Havemeyer on the Financial Crisis.

NEW YORK, Sept 23.—This afternoon Mayor Havemeyer after consultation with several gentlemen decided to issue an address on the present financial crisis and to transmit it to the special meeting of the Board of Aldermen which was called for to-day. When asked what his views were upon the panic the Mayor said he intended to advise workingmen and laborers not to continue their run on the various savings banks, as he felt assured their deposits were perfectly secure and that a run during the present panic might result in a loss of both principal and interest

Condition of the National Bank of the Commonwealth.

NEW YORK, Sept 23.—Mr Bayley, new receiver of the Bank of the Commonwealth, was at the bank to-day at an early hour, busily engaged in examining accounts. He said he was not sufficiently familiar with its affairs to give an account of the property belonging to the bank. He was satisfied, however, that depositors were fully secured. Further than this he could not say.

Mr Meigs, Government Bank Examiner, after an examination of the affairs of the National Bank of Commonwealth, expresses confidence that depositors will receive every dollar due them

There will be a meeting of associated bankers to-morrow at 10 o'clock at the Merchant Bank

Jay Cooke, McCulloch & Co. Dishonor Jay Cooke & Co.'s Drafts.

NEW YORK, Sept 23.—The following private dispatch is published

In Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va, Sept 23.—The banks here have decided to stand by each other, and believe they can stand any run that may be made. Public confidence is unshaken. The Dollar Savings Bank will suspend to-morrow. Its assets are more than enough to pay depositors, but are not immediately available.

The Stock Exchange Still Closed

NEW YORK, Sept 24.—The Finance Governing Committee decided not to open the Stock Exchange to-day. The feeling on the street is rather nervous. Brokers congregate in front of the Stock Exchange but they are doing little or no business. A meeting of bank presidents was in session, considering measures to be taken in the present emergency

Suspension of Howes & Macey.

Howes & Macey have suspended. This is the first effect of the suspension yesterday of Henry Clews & Co. It was one of the houses mentioned by rumor as likely to weather the present storm, and its suspension makes other houses reported embarrassed, to be closely watched. Yesterday the house of Howes & Macey was not in the slightest danger of suspension. This is an old fogy bank. It is added that Mr. Macey is not at all embarrassed by the panic. The only explanation of their suspension was that which applied under existing circumstances to all firms having a large number of depositors. Such houses must suspend. This firm had yielded to the inevitable result of the present financial storm, and would resume when quiet was restored

The Sub-Treasury bought this morning almost a million dollars worth of bonds.

Bank Presidents have decided to issue another ten millions dollars worth of loan certificates

The Sub-Treasurer had purchased a million and a half of bonds up to 12:30 P M. An effort is making by the Sub-Treasurer to distribute greenbacks as much as possible, and no more is being supplied to savings banks than their needs require for the sale of stock and bonds for cash.

Clearing house banks, at a meeting to-day, resolved not to pay out any more currency, but to certify all checks payable at Clearing house only. This is intended to prevent any lock of greenbacks. It is understood, however, small checks will be paid as usual, the rule to apply to checks for large amounts Suspension in Wilkesbarre, Pa.

WILKESBARRE, Sept. 24.—Brown & Gray, brokers, suspended this morning. A card on their doors gives failure of Henry Clews & Co as the cause, but states that the firm will be all right in a few days.

The Allen-McCoole Prize Fight.

ST LOUIS, Sept 23.—The prize fight between Tom Allen and Mike McCoole took place this afternoon at a place in Illinois, fourteen miles above this city, and was witnessed by a crowd of 2,000 persons, who went up on a steamer which conveyed the contestants to the ground. The fight was brief, fierce and bloody, Allen winning in seven rounds, fought in 19 minutes, and getting first blood in the first round, and the first knock down in the fourth. McCoole was terribly battered, his face, at the end of the battle, being a swollen, bloody mass of flesh, and had both eyes closed, while Allen escaped with scarcely a scratch, his antagonist never having succeeded in touching his face

The Crispins' Strike.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The strike progresses among the Crispins in Warren, Murray and Chambers streets and College Place, where ladies shoes are principally manufactured. About 200 men are on strike, and it is rumored that three or four shops have acceded to the demands of the men. The men allege that during the past eighteen months the employers have from time to time cut down prices until there had been a reduction of from five to eleven cents per pair. The employers promised to resume at the old rates, but now refuse

NEW YORK, Sept 24.—Thomas B Parker, aged 42, shot his wife this forenoon, and then shot himself. Jealousy was the cause. The wife may recover

Laborers Discharged at the Paterson Locomotive Works.

PATERSON, N J, Sept 24.—Four hundred and fifteen more men are to be discharged from Rogers locomotive works, making 1,000 men this week, or two-thirds of the force. The Danforth & Grant works have not yet discharged any of their workmen

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Was Captain Hall Poisoned?

LONDON, Sept 23.—Morton, who personally attended Capt Hall up to the moment of his death, makes a statement that Hall returned in perfect health from the journey which preceded his final illness. He was a short time in his cabin, where he took some coffee and immediately afterward became sick and vomited. Hall said they were poisoning him, and Morton evidently believes the same thing. He also suspects subsequent medical treatment. He has, however, a violent feeling against the doctor, which may color his judgment

Suspension of the Clews Banking House in London.

LONDON, Sept 24.—Clews, Habicht & Co were informed yesterday that Henry Clews & Co were safe, and the first they knew of the suspension of the New York house they learned to-day. They immediately called in their solicitors, and after consideration decided to suspend payment

Funds Sent to New York.

LONDON, Sept 24.—A dispatch from Berlin announces the failure of a bank in that city. One hundred and thirty-eight thousand pounds sterling, drawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day, was for shipment to New York; and £20,000 in addition to the above was also shipped to the same place

WEST INDIES.

The Revolution against Baez.

PORTO PLATA, Sept 8.—The revolution against the Government of President Baez has assumed alarming proportions, and has every prospect of speedy success. Monte Christi and Guayubin are in possession of the revolutionists who are in Porto Plata. Martial law has been proclaimed and an attack is momentarily expected. The sudden change in favor of the revolutionists was caused by [illegible] of the Baez party espousing the revolutionary cause with [illegible]. The [illegible] the revolutionists is "Down with the Samana Convention and Baez." SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 24.—At an early hour this morning the steamer Pacific and tugs Lookout and Sol Thomas went down to the wreck of the Costa Rica. The Pacific took hold, and the steam tugs also, with large new hawsers, and the wreck well cleared of water by pumps on board run by donkey engines. At half-past 1 o'clock the boats commenced pulling at the wreck, and after a few minutes moved her about thirty feet, when she stuck fast. All the boats finally slacked lines and went forward. At once the full head and vessel floated off. There was great cheering and excitement at the result. When the Costa Rica was hauled clear from shore, the Pacific left her, and the two tugs went alongside and towed her safely to port and up to Hunter's Point dry dock, where she will be repaired. ALBANY, Sept. 24.

When [illegible] yesterday [illegible] appearances [illegible] [illegible] people than had ever before congregated on the Fair ground. During the afternoon arrivals were not so numerous, yet the crowd is still swelling in numbers and everything [illegible]

Yesterday afternoon the

FIRST RACE OF THE SEASON

Was announced by the Marshal and the crowd generally repaired to the [illegible] near the racetrack. The race was for trotters that [illegible] never beat [illegible] mile heats two best in three, premiums $60, $25 and $15. Three horses were entered: Antelope by Gard [illegible] Tilley by Tinley, and Young Pathfinder by Lot Smith. In drawing for positions Antelope won the inside, Pathfinder second and Tilley got the outside. After considerable maneuvering the horses were let go with a fine start. The race was close between Tilley and Antelope, but the Judges decided in favor of the former, time 3:12. Young Pathfinder was distanced and Pat put him in his little bed. The second heat was won by Antelope, time 3:13. Tilley won the third and first heat with ease in 3:10. Pools sold brisk on this race, Antelope being generally the favorite until after the second heat, when the tide seemed to turn in favor of Tilley. Considerable betting was done and any amount of fuss and fury was exhausted by blowers on the outside

At 3 P M, the

RUNNING RACE FOR OREGON RAISED HORSES

Half mile heats, two in three, was the order of the day. This race was for a purse of $175, first horse $100, second $50 and third $25. Four horses were entered: Plowboy by Gard, Vallandigham by Landsey, Buffalo Bill, by Hughes, and Brunette by Basket. The horses were let off in good style in the first heat and the race was very close between Plowboy and Vallandigham. The latter was declared winner of the heat, time 50 seconds. Plowboy's time was 51. On starting on the second heat some mistake occurred in tapping the start and only two horses were let go. This caused confusion and wrangling, and after much angry discussion the judges announced that the race would be postponed until to-day. This ended the first day's proceeding

ENTRIES ARE STILL BEING MADE

At the Pavilion and articles are being arranged for exhibition as rapidly as possible, but as yet the show is not worthy of any considerable notice. Last night the Fair ground was not lively to speak of, everybody having gone to town or closed their tents and retired to rest, except a few impecunious roughs who made night hideous with their bacchanalian orgies

NO PLACES OF AMUSEMENT

Were open on the ground until this morning. The Parisian Circus is now in full blast, and a dozen or more "shows" of minor importance are open to "take in" visitors

Reed's Panorama exhibited at the Court House in town last night and was well attended, as it deserves to be

The Rosedale Troupe held forth in the Pacific Opera House and were greeted with a crowded audience. The Pixley Sisters appeared in their happy style and elicited loud applause, as did most of the members of the Troupe

COL. J. W. NESMITH,

Democratic candidate for Congress, is billeted for a speech at the Court House to-night. He is at present sojourning with his brother-in-law, Mr. C. P. Burkhart, at his farm adjoining the city. It is reported that our Hi will be on hand to reply to Mr Nesmith, in which case "the boys" anticipate a great deal of fun

The crowd of roughs continues to increase, and it is safe to say that if photographs for the rogues' gallery were needed they could be obtained here without limit in number. It is appalling to witness such a mass of moral putridity as can be seen in detached squads prowling about like hungry hyenas and waiting for an opportunity to ply their nefarious vocations. Three or four arrests were made last night and the chances are that a greater number will be made during the next twelve hours

The farmers of this county are arranging for a

GRAND EXCURSION TO ASTORIA

About the 20th of October. It is believed that several hundred with their families will visit Portland and the mouth of the Columbia about that time. A committee is to be appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the trip by cars and boats

THE OPENING ADDRESS

Is being pronounced by J H Smith as I close this letter. The influx of visitors is again swelling, and it is now safe to say that the fair will be largely attended

A GIGANTIC LAW SUIT.—It is comfortable to see occasionally immense corporations brought to account by wealthy men when the poor and helpless have been unable to secure justice or anything like it at their hands. A case in point is presented by a correspondent of the New York World, who writes from Chicago as follows

A battle between the Cattle King and the Railroad King of America has commenced here in the Circuit Court. W. H. Vanderbilt, passing through the city to-day, was served with the papers. The suit is an action of assumpsit brought by John T Alexander against the Toledo, Wabash and Western, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Companies, damages being laid at $250,000. The facts alleged in the plaintiff's declaration are as follows: Alexander, known through the West as the Cattle King, from his gigantic operations in live stock, had previous to June 1870 shipped hast exclusively by the Pennsylvania road, the charge by that line being a $100 a car. Vanderbilt was desirous of securing the business, and after long negotiations entered into an arrangement with Alexander, agreeing to carry his cattle at $[illegible] a car, [illegible] should the Pennsylvania road break rates at as low a rate as cattle were carried by any other line. The break ensued. The Pennsylvania road carried cattle for $[illegible] a car, and to maintain its position the Erie Railway [illegible] to transport the stock of its largest shipper free of any charge whatsoever. The New York Central at [illegible] carried cattle for $40 and $50 a car, but compelled Alexander to pay $[illegible]. Alexander's shipments amount to about 2,000 cars, and he has brought suit to recover the difference between the amount actually paid and the lowest rate charged. A similar action has been instituted by W[illegible] against the same corporation, damages being laid at $[illegible]

We acknowledge the receipt of [illegible] Scandinavian, [illegible] published [illegible] in the New [illegible] language at San Francisco [illegible] [illegible] of Hugo Nisbeth [illegible] the object is to [illegible] the [illegible] Western States and [illegible] Sweden, Norway and Denmark [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the only Scandinavian newspaper west of the Rocky mountains it should meet with the support from our Scandinavian fellow citizens, who we may remark, are to be numbered among our thriftiest and most industrious farming communities

The Albany Register says Mr Blevans, of Ochoco called on Monday. He speaks highly of Ochoco as a grain growing and grazing country, and thinks that rich gold diggings may yet be found there. He exhibited some very nice specimens of gold which he obtained about six miles from his farm

Last Sunday night about 12 o'clock Mr Trimble's barn—on the farm formerly owned by Samuel Allen, near the Abiqua, in Marion county—was destroyed by fire. The contents, including 900 bushels of wheat, 1,000 bushels of oats, [illegible] tons of hay, wagons, carriages, plows, harrows and all Mr Trimble's farming utensils were burned. Fortunately the horses usually kept in the barn were turned out in the pasture the night before. Mr Trimble was absent at the time. The fire was clearly the work of an incendiary, but there is no clue to the criminal

The Statesman says a stranger to the good people of Salem came down to what proved his Jericho on Monday night. He had some money and some valuable script upon neither of which he can now clap his eagle optics. In brief he got glorious, went out to see the town by gas light and star light, and after that he can't remember much about what happened, save that when he found himself Tuesday morning he couldn't find his money nor his script. The police are looking into the matter and may be able to inform the stranger how he and his money were parted

Threatening letters are being written in Salem by some one who gives the people only two weeks to turn all their hired Chinamen off. The Statesman says: "There is some disposition to treat the matter as of no importance, but there are those who believe the threats mean something more than an idle joke. We have in Salem a good many fun-loving boys and practical jokers, but there is not the slightest evidence to connect any of them with the issue of these letters. The least that we could suggest is that a vigilant lookout be kept, and that all possible precautions be observed not only for the prevention or extinguishment of fire, but for the detection of the 'fire fiend' known to be among us. The letters are signed 'League of Nine,' and warn the people to 'remember the fate of Portland'

"BLOOD WILL TELL"

HILLSBORO, Sept 24 1873

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Many persons in Oregon have no idea of the value of pure blooded stock, and the trouble and expense attached to keeping them up to the standard. All classes of stock, without the greatest care are constantly deteriorating—becoming mixed with bad blood by crossing with inferior animals, or breeding over and over again to the same sire, never troubling to get a cross outside the same family that their fathers owned before them. The late sale of Shorthorns on the 10th of this month, made by Mr Campbell, of the New York Mills, Oneida county, N Y, as furnished us by Mr Wm Watson, of Reedville, and taken from a communication received quite recently by him, will show how the Shorthorns are valued by gentlemen not only in the United States but also in England and Scotland, and it will also show that the old countries find it advisable to come to the United States to get their fresh blood

Mr Campbell sold 111 Shorthorn animals which netted him the handsome sum of $380,890. 10 Duchess females of the celebrated Bates family sold for $219,250, making an average, apiece of $21,700, which sum would be equal to the best (or nearly so) farm in Washington county, and most of our farmers would certainly consider such sum a competency sufficient to retire on

The following taken from the list of sales, gives the names of purchasers and the places they were taken to, as well as the amounts paid

Second Duke of Oneida sold for $12,000 and goes to Kentucky

Twelfth Duchess of Thornsdale sold to A. B Conger, New York, for $8,700

Duchess of Oneida (under 6 months old) to Mr Berwick, of Scotland, who represents Lord Dunmore, for $10,000

Thirteenth Duchess of Thorndale to A. B Conger, of New York, for $15,000

Eighth Duchess of Oneida (under 1 year old) to Mr Berwick, Scotland for $[illegible]

Thirteenth Duchess of Oneida, to Mr Halford of England for $15,000

Ninth Duchess of Oneida $19,000, and Tenth Duchess of Oneida $27,000, to Mr A J Alexander of Kentucky, the purchaser

Fourth Duchess of Oneida for $25,000, to T G Bedford of Kentucky, the purchaser

First Duchess of Oneida to Lord Kinnear [illegible] of England, for $30,000

Tenth Duchess of Geneva, to Mr Berwick, of Scotland $35,000

Eighth Duchess of Geneva to Mr Davis, of England $40,000

In looking over the above list it will be found that while the expenses are necessarily very large in keeping such stock, it will also be seen that the returns and prices received for them are certainly handsome; and while Oregon is striving so hard to make her way up in the world not only in agriculture but in pastoral pursuits, it would be well for her people to consider the advantages accruing from the production of superior blooded stock, as well as superior [illegible]. Our past history as a State and people has been one of rapid progress, and to-day we occupy a position of some note in these departments, but we have not yet begun to attain perfection

Mr Watson, who has been well acquainted with the Bates family of shorthorns during, and [illegible] Mr Bates in the year 1845, says he never saw better animals and equally fresh [illegible] that Mr Campbell offered [illegible] Live Oak [illegible] county, and that [illegible] will have an opportunity of seeing [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The big Indian council that was to have been held at Wallula during the past week has been postponed, and will not come off until next week. At which the Lo family is expected to be present in full force, and to tell what they know about treaties

A special to the New York World from Salt Lake under date of the 10th, says: "Marshal Duncan says that the New York bond forgers are undoubtedly in this city, and that he can get them, their dies, plates and some bills. He is confident of being able to arrest them." If so why fool about the matter

The sea serpent of Sevier was seen last week by two weary prospectors, who had seated themselves on the shores of the lake to rest, after a tedious search for the riches of Utah. The snake was basking in the sun, and is described as being about thirty-five feet in length and large and round as a peck measure, and striped after the manner of a rattlesnake

The Walla Walla Union says: "In Walla Walla wheat sells for just 80 cents per bushel less than it does in Portland, or in other words, it brings just one-third as much as it does there. Now, if it only costs 50 cents per bushel to sack and ship the grain, where does the other 30 out of the 80 cents go? This is the conundrum that the Grangers are propounding."

A friend writing to the Courier under date of September 18th, from Montesano, W T, says the farmers throughout that section of country have their grain about all ready for the thresher. Many of them have their threshing done, especially those living on Black River. According to the best information he could gain, the yield this year per acre is rather better than last, with little smut save in a few instances. The potato crop near Montesano is likely to prove an entire failure this season on account of the rot. Two nights recently frost nipped vegetation quite severely

T C Everts, of Montana, writes to the Virginia City Montanian, complaining of the surveys and reports of Prof Hayden. He says:

For some reason which I can hardly account for this man Hayden has seen fit to rename many of the old landmarks of the country, substituting names to rivers and mountains the names of obscure men of his party, and when he had exhausted these, was compelled to resort to naming a prominent peak in the Gallatine Valley after an alien Englishman—there being no American of sufficient notoriety left on which to confer that honor."

A dead whale 40 feet long came ashore at Shoalwater Bay last week. Squire Harn, well known in Portland, and four other men held an inquest on the carcass and rendered the following verdict: 1. That said whale is a female—evidence, two large rows of the mammary nozzle. 2. That she was from Nantucket—evidence, hair in the mouth. 3. That she had been in the Columbia river—evidence, coroner's hat and manuscript. 4. That Jonah was not there—evidence, he could not be seen. 5. That she certainly came to her death by colliding with an ocean steamer on Columbia river bar—evidence, the hole in her starboard quarter

The editor of the Alaska Herald has been looking over that frigid corner of creation, and if his reports are true our bargain with Russia was not so bad a one after all. THE STORY OF SENATOR MITCHELL

THE FACTS AND THE [illegible] ENDORSEMENT

If there is any person in Oregon who does not know the precise nature of the case between Senator Mitchell and the people of the State of Oregon who are now called upon to vote for a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the Republican party that he has lived so pure a life since his coming here as to entitle him to the confidence of the people notwithstanding his former sins, we hope to be able to convince such a one that we have not charged against the Senator without good and sufficient cause A bare repetition of the facts as they have come to light thus far will, we are satisfied be a sufficient justification before the moral and honest people who compose the population of Oregon, of all that has been said in opposition to an endorsement of the Senator's character by the Republican party

First in order we give the statement of Col. John M Thompson of Butler, Pennsylvania His early relations to Mr Mitchell, his position as a politician who [illegible] of the character of a United States Senator, and his being the attorney employed to procure the divorce between Mitchell and his deserted wife all conspire to make him lean as far toward the Senator, at least, as truth will warrant It would scarcely be too much to say that the narrative he gives bears its own evidence of being colored in favor of the Senator. We do not assert that such is the case; we only say it is plain that he has put the best possible face upon the matter. Here, then is the

as given in an interview with a correspondent of the Pittsburg Leader, on the [illegible] of May last

[illegible] H. Mitchell, newly elected United States Senator from Oregon as yet but little known to fame, has lately been made the subject of a sensational story, which shows him to have had quite a history, with incidents in it [illegible] not wholly to his credit When he was plain John H Mitchell, his story [illegible] no interest for any one outside of his [illegible] circle, but now that he has become a member of the august United States Senate his antecedents and past life become [illegible]. In the position of a Senator, [illegible] to the thousands of temptations [illegible] to that high place, it is highly improbable that the Senator should start out [illegible], as Henry Wilson did when he [illegible] of the shoe business and into legislation [illegible]

[illegible] the Leader gently whispered in [illegible] that the new Senator from Oregon [illegible] a Pennsylvania man and that he [illegible] under an assumed name on account of a [illegible] past life, the matter [illegible] a proper one for investigation

A SENATOR WITH AN ALIAS

[illegible] of the inquiry was not to rake [illegible] against Mr Mitchell, but [illegible] Senator with an alias is a [illegible], and if for no other reason [illegible] to the Senator himself an explanation [illegible]. Then the charge made of [illegible] a defaulter to a large [illegible] the most careful attention [illegible] to Butler, the former [illegible] day, and there in [illegible] with the old law partner received [illegible] of the new Senator's early life. His [illegible] was a bitter one

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

[illegible] the principal character as a [illegible] to have been his [illegible] was known as John Hipple One [illegible] too heavy for him, and [illegible] word of warning, taking with [illegible] $1,000 of his partner's money, for [illegible] he said in a letter was to [illegible]. From this his partner [illegible] about $2,500 The balance was [illegible] good to him. For years however [illegible] unknown to his former [illegible] Mr Thompson, [illegible] from him, but the letter [illegible] to him through a third [illegible] the runaway's whereabouts remained unknown. The real name of the new [illegible] Mitchell Hipple It appears [illegible] to Oregon he dropped his [illegible] or rather transposed his name, so [illegible] John H Mitchell This was for [illegible] more effectually concealing his [illegible]. The unhappy marriage which [illegible] in Butler was the main cause of [illegible] children were had by [illegible] one conceived outside of wedlock [illegible] after his marriage The first he [illegible] him in his flight The others he [illegible] this county, and has since supported [illegible] of his story were given in [illegible] which your correspondent had [illegible] Col. Thompson of the firm of Thompson [illegible] Thompson was the preceptor of [illegible] Hipple, as I shall now call him, and [illegible] took him into partnership

THOMPSON'S STORY

Your correspondent found Col Thompson [illegible] early last evening, and upon the [illegible] of his business Mr Thompson [illegible] his willingness to talk Mr [illegible] is a man in the prime of life of an [illegible] type He is well known in [illegible] politics, having served several [illegible] in the Harrisburg Legislature and acted [illegible] or two [illegible] as Speaker of the House of Representatives. The conversation began at [illegible] upon the subject of Mr Hipple alias [illegible]

[illegible]—You have heard doubtless of the [illegible] lately circulated concerning the [illegible] known as Mr Mitchell United States Senator from Oregon First I wish to [illegible] from you is Mr Mitchell identical with [illegible] Hipple, your former law partner in this [illegible]

Col. Thompson—He is

C.—Then I should like from you a true history of Mr. Hipple's experiences here and [illegible] the present stories circulated about [illegible]'s new Senator are true or not

Col. T.—In part what has been said concerning him is true, but the stories have been highly colored and unless viewed from a standpoint of a full knowledge of the case may lead to the prejudice of Mr Mitchell or Hipple just as you please I will tell you his story as I know it, and trust that you will publish my [illegible] as I gave it to you.

C.—I shall certainly do so

Col T.—I am not very positive about dates but I think John Hipple came into my law [illegible] in 1856 He was an extremely diligent [illegible], and was taken into partnership with me in 1859 He was a remarkably ambitious [illegible] man, one who made friends everywhere, and was very attentive to business In 1857 he was married and right here it might be well to go back a little The young lady whom he married was one of his childhood's mates Their parents owned adjoining farms, for you must know John was a farmer's son Her family was a respectable [illegible] but one not remarkable certainly in an intellectual way John and this girl Sarah Hoon, were much together and about this time

UNPLEASANT GOSSIP

Was aroused Whether John ever did any wrong to the girl I am unprepared to say At any rate while yet unmarried she became with child, and instituted proceedings against John upon a charge of bastardy naming him as the father The result of this was that John married the girl

Would he have married her if he had not really been her seducer

Col. T.—You can settle that as you like. You are asking me for facts that I know in the case John married the girl in 1857 I think, this was upon the advice of his father Of course the marriage that followed was a

MOST UNHAPPY ONE

It could hardly have been different under the circumstances. Two children were the result of this marriage The first child the cause of the action against John was a girl named Jessie. I [illegible] believe my old partner tried to live with his wife but her tastes were of such a nature that there was nothing in common between them He was educated studious and possessed a vaulting ambition She could not sympathize with him and there was perpetual discord He said but little of this to me and seemed resolved to bear his burden in silence During the winters of 1859 and 1860 I was Speaker of the House of Representatives and I was away most of the time John looked after my business entirely In April 1860 I returned to my office A day or two after my arrival home John left the office to go to Pittsburg merely saying that he was going away on business

HE NEVER RETURNED.

As my partner. A short time after I had got [illegible] I received a letter [illegible] The World It had no postmark by which I could tell where [illegible] was. This letter stated his reasons why he had gone away. He said in it that he could not live with his wife, that he was going [illegible] when [illegible] he would be [illegible] and begin life over again. He made [illegible] of all his property [illegible] satisfaction [illegible] $1,000 which I [illegible] him. He said if the [illegible] the $1000 he would make it up [illegible]

A PROBABLE EXPLANATION

C.—[illegible] the nature of a defalcation

Col. T.—It might be

C.—That is [illegible] and Mr Hipple at the time and had wished to have an action [illegible] him upon the ground of defalcation there might have been a case [illegible] out

Col T.—There might have been if I had so desired But I am well satisfied there was no intention to defraud Mr Hipple has since made good to me the discrepancy of $1,500 Right here I want to make one point clear There was never any compromise made by me with creditors occasioned by my partner's flight The creditors of Thompson & Hipple were paid in full all their claims against the firm

WHY? OH WHY?

C.—Why was it if Mr Hipple had confidence in you, he did not reveal his plans to you instead of running away as he did without giving you any warning of his intent

Col T.—He was young and inexperienced He was made morbid by his unhappy marriage and doubtless was afraid of some obstacle being laid in the way of his leaving

THE PITTSBURGH INTERVIEW

C.—About that interview you had with him in Pittsburgh last month

Col T.—I went to Pittsburgh at his request I took dinner with him at the Union Depot hotel on Sunday the 20th of April last I had been in correspondence with him for some time and had seen him several times since 1867 There was no money difference between us then All that was settled in 1867 Hipple felt that the one great indiscretion of his life was the assumption of a false name Probably he wished to talk with me about it At any rate we did talk over his position and the certainty of his story finally coming out now that he had arisen to a position of public trust I advised him to meet the story boldly and tell the real truth of the case I saw him but a brief time as after dinner he went on his journey

C.—For years you never knew where he was?

Col T.—No. This was doubtless only another one of the many precautions that John took to prevent his wife following him, a subject upon which he is perfectly morbid His wife remained at home part of the time She worked also about in families She was at one time a charge upon this township The occasion of this was her being with child, as was alleged by some one unknown to me The two children left here were placed in the care of John's brother in law Dr Porter, who lives in Indiana county John has regularly contributed to their support They have been well cared for the mother never taking the slightest interest in them

The Colonel here squared himself about and said I want to give you after having given you the facts in the case my opinion Mr Thompson then said in a very earnest way

"As an intimate friend, the preceptor and partner of John M Hipple I wish to say that I never saw a dishonest nor dishonorable act committed by him I esteemed him, and yet do as a man of honor and integrity While it is true he left me his creditor, I believe he thought he had provided for me fully In this he was mistaken, but on ascertaining the fact paid me in full I never held him to be criminal in not paying me, and I do not now I trusted him in times gone by and looking over his entire life, I am ready to confide in and trust him yet, His conduct is undoubtedly open to criticism, not to say censure, but when fully understood the reasons for controlling his action all known, I am satisfied a fair verdict will hold him, as I do, justified and vindicated"

C.—Of course you omit the little transaction he had with his wife before marriage"

Col T.—I omit nothing I can overlook a youthful indiscretion so bitterly atoned for in the light of the truly high character of the man

UPON FURTHER INQUIRY IT APPEARS

That John Hipple has been here several times during the last two or three years to visit his parents who reside near town He has no longer any fear of his wife who procured a divorce from him (not he from her, as has been stated) some three or four years ago from Mr R P Scott the then Commissioner The ground upon which the divorce was granted was desertion The Oregon Senator has since contributed at intervals money for her support as well as before her divorce This seems to be the real facts in the case so far as they can be elicited here That John Hipple Mitchell committed grave indiscretions in his youth and has since been severely punished is quite certain He stands in the anomalous position in the United States Senate as a Senator with an alias Whether this will redound to his credit in connection with the cause that led him to assume it will hardly be asserted by the most enthusiastic of his friends

This statement we positively know, was in the hands of Mr Mitchell before it was published in the OREGONIAN and he at first denounced it as an unmitigated and unqualified falsehood Soon however he reconsidered the matter, and resolved to publish his defense In that defense he did not deny any of the charges, but simply asked oblivion This boon he asked upon the ground that he had been forced to choose between a life of unhappiness with a woman wholly unsuited to his nature and tastes on the one hand, and a new beginning in some country where he was unknown, and where he could live in peaceful obscurity an honorable and upright life To carry out this plan, he said, he changed his name and came to Oregon, the spot most remote from the scenes of his troubles that could be found in the United States. This change of name he admits was a foolish act and an unfortunate blunder

Were this explanation truthful and candid as would become a person standing as Mr Mitchell stood, in voluntarily offering an ex parte defense against the gravest charges before an indulgent people who had honored him so highly we feel sure that people would have proved themselves as magnanimous as they are indulgent and borne with him the mortification which the disclosure had inflicted upon his State as well as himself A generous people could not have found it in their hearts to press the accusation though they might not have been willing to [illegible] in any affirmative demonstration in behalf of the person whose faults and misfortunes had fallen upon them and their State

But this was not the case. His defense was not truthful and candid! The worst had not come to light He pushed the story just as far as Col Thompson in his partiality for the Senator had put it, but [illegible] supposing that because the darker chapters had not been made public they never would His very defense therefore was a deception and a trading upon the community This we say not in the spirit of persecution for God knows he would be a heartless and cruel man who could desire to add one pang to those the Senator must experience already We say it because not to say it would be to withhold the truth and leave those Republicans who are making conscientious opposition to the endorsement resolution to bear the imputation of being mere factionists or men inspired by ill will toward the Senator

In support of what we have said in regard to Mr Mitchell's concealment of the most material facts in his case we call attention to some matters immediately connected with the transaction but utterly contradictory of Mr Mitchell's explanation of the circumstances [illegible] of his deserting his wife and changing his name And the statement we are about to make comes from persons of high standing who now reside in the city of Portland but who at the time of the events narrated lived at San Luis Obispo About the last of April or first of May 1860 (the reader will observe that Mr Hipple left Pennsylvania in April of that year) the man whom we now call Senator Mitchell landed at the port of San Luis Obispo in Southern California from a steamship bound from Panama to San Francisco In those times we may remark parenthetically the Pacific railway being yet unbuilt, the travel to California from the East was mostly by steamer With the future Senator landed also a handsome and sprightly young woman whom he introduced as Mrs Mitchell his wife. The two went out to the town of San Luis Obispo, which is a few miles inland from the seaport of the same name and there Mr Mitchell opened a law office under the name of John H Mitchell, rented a house and furnished it and settled down to business Then he introduced the person he called his wife into society She appeared to be extremely fond of him and of a little girl who was understood to be their daughter frequently alluding with pride to the talents of her husband and saying he had studied law with one of the most eminent lawyers of Pittsburg and would himself become a great lawyer some day This person it is stated, said she had been a school ma'am before her marriage to Mr Mitchell Early in June it was determined by the citizens to have a Fourth of July celebration, and Mr Mitchell was complimented with an invitation to deliver the oration He accepted the invitation but soon afterwards came to the conclusion to leave the place, assigning as a reason for this sudden change of purpose that the lawyers there understood the Spanish language and had therefore, an advantage over him, the people there being largely of Spanish or Mexican origin that business was light anyway and that he and his wife were both too unquestionably Republican to get along well in a place so strongly Democratic as that He left there with his family, before the time to deliver his oration, our informant thinks about the middle of June We know nothing further of him or of the woman accompanying him till he reached Portland without her, on or about the first day of July of the same year He could not have stopped long in San Francisco

Soon after Mr Mitchell came to Portland, and many times since, he told different persons that his wife had died in California just before his coming up here

Another circumstance not without significance is that when the story of his changing his name was first made public here, the Senator denounced the statement as an unmitigated falsehood, and afterwards, and in a very short period confessed its truth

This fact throws a flood of light upon the circumstances of Mr Mitchell's leaving his native State and his family And at the same time it utterly destroys all claim the Senator can have to oblivion on the grounds set forth in his defense

Now read the story as subsequently given by the forsaken wife and taken down by the same person who took Col Thompson's statement, and see how perfectly it corresponds with the truth as gathered from these circumstances

A few days before the interview she had left the town and gone into the country to avoid two lawyers representing Mr Hipple who had been after her before doubtless for the purpose of entrapping her into some step that might remove a part, at least of the difficulties that stand in the way of a successful white washing of the Senator's character She was sent for and arriving at the house of her friend Mrs Prime of Franklin found the correspondent awaiting her according to an arrangement previously made with Mrs Prime She was suffering at the time from an attack of rheumatism brought on by overwork and was very feeble

We have condensed thus much from the report of the correspondent Mrs Hipple's story we prefer to give in her own words

As the door opened I turned and saw the object of my long search a feeble woman of large figure who leaned upon the arm of the young man whom I saw the day previous with a look of agony on her face as if every movement was one of pain She tottered across the room with [illegible] an open window and there she sat [illegible] and sighing with pain Little Mr Prime at once [illegible] to her aid and proceeded to bathe her flushed face and to smooth out her hair from her feverish brow

I then had an opportunity of getting a good look at her Mrs John Mitchell Hipple now known under her maiden name of Sarah H[illegible] She is a woman of not much over thirty years of age but [illegible] makes her look much [illegible] Her face [illegible] not a very intelligent one but certainly not a bad face. It was [illegible] temper but not much more than could be expected from one who has [illegible] in the shape of a [illegible]. Her mouth is small and [illegible] yet well preserved [illegible] Her forehead [illegible] high. [illegible]

"Said Mrs Hipple [illegible]

Her [illegible] Col Thompson [illegible] view upon the subject in Butler [illegible] week ago She listened with a quiet smile on her face until I had briefly told her the [illegible] points when she said

"Then that is all the reason Col Thompson gave you for my husband leaving me—that our marriage was an unhappy one and he could not live with me?"

Correspondent—Yes

Mrs Hipple—Well listen to me and I will tell you the real reason and you can find it out from the names I will give you [illegible] all [illegible]. Did Col Thompson tell you that when John ran away taking money that didn't belong to him he took [illegible]

[illegible] AWAY WITH HIM

C.—No. He [illegible]

Mrs Hipple—Well he did. When he went away he took with him Mary [illegible]. And it was written [illegible] in the papers at the time [illegible]

Mrs H.—[illegible] Well John and I lived together one year happily when our trouble began

C.—What was the nature of these troubles

Mr H.—John's running after other women. Of course you can understand my feelings in this matter. I loved him and was happy with him until he became unfaithful to me

THE FIRST PROOF OF INFIDELITY

The first that I knew that John was untrue to me was one night shortly after our troubles began I had heard it said [illegible] with other women but I did not know it. He brought home this Mary [illegible] at this time who was a school teacher to stay at our house Mary went up to her room which was near ours rather early John was left below writing After a while I went to my room and undressed I waited for John until 11 o'clock when I slipped down to see if he was yet writing He was not there I knew he had not gone out of the house so I went to Mary's bedroom The door was locked I then sat down and waited At 1 o'clock my husband unlocked the bedroom door came out and without a word went to bed I did not say a word to him then but in the morning when I attempted to say something about it he swore at me with dreadful oaths and said he would take my life if I ever opened my head about it again From that time on he had that woman in the house whenever he pleased and I could not prevent it Do you wonder that we quarreled continually under those circumstances Miss McChristian a milliner at Butler will testify that at this time she was in Pittsburgh and stopped at Hare's hotel Miss —— my husband's Miss came there also My husband shortly after arrived and asked to be shown to his wife's room alluding to Miss —— Miss McChristian exposed him to the landlord and John was ordered away from the hotel This can be substantiated by living witnesses to-day

C.—I understand from Col Thompson that your husband had contributed regularly to your as well as to the children's support during his absence at least to yours until the divorce was procured

Mrs H.—From the time John Hipple left me he never contributed one cent to my support The night he went away he bought me a silk dress and bought many things for himself It was on Saturday afternoon He went to Jas Campbell's in Butler and made several purchases He procured also a small pass book as he said for the use of his wife I never received it and he left that evening, taking Jessie my oldest with him He told me he was going to Pittsburgh to pay over some money upon claims in the Supreme Court John was in his room that afternoon counting over his money and would not let me come in

C.—Was Jessie born before or after your marriage?

Mrs H.—She was born before She was taken away from me when a little tender thing, and I have never seen her since I heard of her in Pittsburg when John ran away with her how she cried and took on for mamma Since that time John has taught her that her mother is dead and I have never been permitted to hear a word of her I tried to get a picture of her but this was refused me by Col Thompson

C.—About your other children

Mrs H.—They are with my sister Mrs Dr Porter at Sunbury

C.—Col Thompson said Mr Hipple had contributed regularly to their support

Mrs H.—Until some three years ago he never sent them a cent. At that time he sent one hundred dollars That is the only money he ever sent to the children I will say nothing here. I can refer you to Dr Porter who has charge of the children to ask him how John has treated the children I hear that John is thinking of taking away the children now that they are grown [Here Mrs Hipple's eyes filled with tears] If he should take them away I am sure I should die I have worked for them and contributed from my little earnings from time to time and have tried to do my duty to them as far as lay in my power

C.—Col Thompson said the reason of your unhappy marriage with Mr Hipple was on account of your fondness for society which he could not approve

Mr H.—I never went into society during my married life I only associated with [illegible]. There does not exist the [illegible] in Butler who can say aught against my character while I was in Butler

C.—No I never [illegible] any one say aught against your character at the time

Mrs H.—Except [illegible] One of the men who has [illegible] my character his name —— —— was the man who [illegible] by my husband [illegible] get her [illegible]

[illegible] Mr Mitchell [illegible] this county [illegible] both 18[illegible] Only two years after he left his wife only eighteen months after he lost his woman in California? Repentance obscurity reformation!

Here we have the first six years and a half of his life in Oregon But has there been a marriage since the divorce in 18[illegible] It is not claimed that there has been What then is to be said of the remaining six and a half years. Let every one answer before he votes

We [illegible] says Mr Mitchell has [illegible] to make [illegible] in the campaign now in progress upon his private life in Oregon. [illegible] we turn we [illegible] this part of the Senator's career [illegible] But he has challenged investigation and demands that upon this question the election shall turn It [illegible] all in our power [illegible] of his enemies could not have [illegible] a more [illegible] to the Senator [illegible] Nobody asked to have the Convention condemn him But the Republicans who loved the honor of the State and the integrity of the party begged and implored that the Convention should refrain from acting upon a subject that could only bring disaster and that would compromise the honor of the party. They asked to be free from party dictation upon questions of conscience They asked to have the liberty of supporting the nominees of the party without voting to endorse a life so at variance with all law human and divine and without encouraging an example so dangerous to the peace and happiness of the family circle This was denied them The Convention passed the resolution Here it is

Resolved That whatever may have been the misfortunes, faults or shortcomings of the Hon J. H. Mitchell U. S. Senator of this State in his early private life we neither apologize [illegible] nor pass judgment upon nor justify him but express our unqualified belief that by his many years of consistent upright and honorable conduct in this State he has outlived any imputations cast upon him and that to day not only the Republican party but a large majority of the people of this State have entire confidence in his integrity ability and patriotism and that he will faithfully and ably represent them in the United States Senate

This is the case as it stands independent of any of the crooked ways through which Mr Mitchell managed the politics of the State to reach his exalted position Of these we do not care now to speak

We have given the entire matter at this length so that all may see what is the true basis of the opposition now made to the endorsement of this resolution If the people of Oregon are willing to place themselves on record as approving of these things they have the legal right and the opportunity of doing so but we can hardly imagine it possible they will consent to stand before the world in this light The 13th of October will we are firmly convinced demonstrate that the people of Oregon are not so abandoned as to be willing to give up their good name, because one of their fellow citizens demands it as a means of securing to himself immunity from the consequences of his own sins

We hope never again to find it necessary to rehearse these sickening details at length and that in the future such matters will not be made an issue by the Republican party and thus forced into prominence

SOMEBODY GIVE HIM A HATCHET

Our readers will remember that several days ago the Bulletin quoted the Boston Democrat as saying that on a certain day wheat advanced to 75 cents per bushel in Roseburg and that the freight agents on the line of the Oregon & California Railroad were immediately instructed to advance the tariff of transportation three cents per bushel The Bulletin declared that the statement was entirely false, surprised that a journal published in an agricultural district and having every facility for being informed on a matter of so much importance to producers should be guilty of an error so far as we took trouble to inquire into the matter We were informed by gentlemen who are shipping thousands of bushels of grain each week and whose veracity is above suspicion that since the 1st day of the present month they have been paying for the transportation of wheat three cents more per bushel than they paid before that date Deeming this pretty conclusive evidence that the tariff had been raised we accused the Bulletin of misrepresentation [illegible] that when that [illegible] took to sustain Mr H[illegible] credit by the publication of such palpable falsehoods as this it was likely to do him more injury than good Now the Bulletin stumbles and blunders through a column and a quarter of words in a clumsy effort to wriggle out of its awkward fix. It wants us to understand that Mr Holladay's freight superintendent not the Bulletin is responsible for the falsehood The [illegible] says [illegible] not [illegible] Please somebody give him a hatchet

But in all its protestations of injured innocence it does not once attempt to contravert our statement of the facts It grieves that any one should have the heart to accuse it of [illegible] It wears [illegible]

Oregon City.—A visitor at Oregon City yesterday handed the following item: Court is still in session but will probably adjourn to-day. The grand jury was discharged yesterday and Prosecuting Attorney Durham returned down by the cars. Improvements in the city are going ahead steadily. Bricklayers are putting up the walls of the second story on [illegible] brick. It promises to be a showy and substantial building. A number of frame dwellings are being built—some quite large. The [illegible] Company are still making improvements on their works. At the lower end a [illegible] is being erected to better protect the entrance in high water. [illegible] the Sea Fly in the basin is going on rapidly. The Clackamas Paper Mills have been leased to Messrs Crawthwaite & Smith who commenced making paper on Monday and will soon have a stock of Oregon straw in market. Merchants are already feeling the effect of the abundant harvest and look well pleased with the prospect of a good fall trade. Since he has been in office Postmaster [illegible] has issued over three thousand money orders. The Clackamas bridge has been covered and bids fair to be ready for acceptance at the next term of the County Court. In strolling along the river bank [illegible] in the front yard of the Catholic Cathedral two plain marble tombstones which have formerly marked the graves of the old Hudson's Bay Factor [illegible] early settler, and his wife. The Doctor died in 1857 and his wife in 1860.

Elegant Cups.—Two elegantly finished silver cups can be seen in the show window of Henrichsen's jewelry store which were received on the last steamer from San Francisco. The cups were made expressly to order below. The purchase money was raised by subscription among the farmers and stock-raisers of Washington county. Both cups are of beautiful design, elegantly and elaborately chased. They will be awarded as premiums at the Hillsboro Fair. One cup has the following inscription: "Subscription Challenge Cup open to the whole Pacific coast, awarded at the Washington County Agricultural Society's Fair at Hillsboro September 29th 1873, for the best long wooled buck of any breed or age." This cup is valued at $50. The other cup is considerably larger and of better workmanship. It bears a similar inscription and will be awarded any person who may exhibit at the Fair the best short horned bull. The cup is worth $100. More handsome and valuable premiums will not be awarded at the Fair and these beautiful specimens of fine workmanship and cultivated taste, are well worth competing for.

Riverside Iron Works.—These new works are situated on the east bank of the Willamette several hundred yards south of the residence of Jas B Stephens. Mr John Watson, for some time Foreman of the Oregon Iron Works and well known as an experienced machinist, is one of the principal owners in these new works. This foundry began operations about two weeks ago and is now turning out considerable work. Castings are had every other day. The principal branch pursued by these works will be the manufacture of stoves. Already a number of stoves have been finished, and will soon be in the market. All the machinery, iron, etc., in the foundry of D Monnastes on this side of the river has been purchased. In a few weeks the machinery which is now being set up, will be ready for operation and the establishment will be prepared to do all kinds of machine work. The first galvanizing that has yet been attempted in the State is being successfully accomplished at the Riverside Works. Spouting and pipes for eaves are being made in large quantities, to which are applied the galvanizing process with marked success.

Iron-Bound Pavement.—The Salt Lake Tribune, in speaking of one of Portland's old citizens, says: "Mr E Perrin of Portland, Oregon, the patentee of the iron-fastened pavement, called at our office yesterday to set forth the merits of the invention, which has been accepted by the City Council for use in our street crossings. It appears to us to be a decided improvement upon all former kinds of wood pavement. This pavement consists of red wood blocks, sixteen inches square and nine inches thick, grooved half way into the wood, and fastened together with iron rods connecting the blocks on all sides. Each block is thus firmly held in its place, and will always preserve an even surface. The grooves are filled with asphalte. It is pronounced the finest pavement in use, and can be laid down at no greater cost than the Nicolson pavement. The other advantages claimed are that no flooring is required upon which to lay the blocks, and one or more rows can be taken up without disturbing more than is removed."

Another Steamer.—On Tuesday the Willamette River Transportation Company let the contract for the building of another new steamboat. The contractor is Mr Steffens who was the builder of the steamer Beaver. This new craft will be 150 feet long, 30 feet beam, and 6½ feet hold. It will be propelled by two engines, each of 20 inch bore and six feet stroke. The boiler will be about the same size as the one used on the Gov Grover. Timbers are being fashioned for the new boat and the frame for the keel will be laid within a week. This new steamer is to be finished by the first of January 1874, and will run on the upper Willamette in conjunction with the other boats owned by the Company.

Good Templars' Hall.—Since the destruction of their hall on the 2d of August the members of Nonpareil Lodge I O G T have been holding weekly meetings at the hall corner of Alder and Third Streets. However, the new building at the corner of First and Madison streets is almost finished. A large hall in the second story has been leased and will be used as a lodge room. Plasterers are busily engaged at work on the interior of the building and the hall will be ready to be furnished by next Monday. Everything will be crowded forward and the hall will be dedicated on Friday the 3d of October.

To Close.—The initiatory steps taken a few weeks ago by the wholesale merchants of the city in relation to early closing has not only been successful so far as regards the merchants themselves, but has set an example that has stimulated imitation among others engaged in business. Last week a similar movement was made by the retail dealers to close their places of business promptly every evening at 8 o'clock except on Saturdays. This effort has been successful. Yesterday the various barbers of the city took steps in the same line, which has likewise met with satisfactory results.

Steam Fire Engine.—A letter was received last week from the agents in San Francisco of the Amoskeag steam fire engines by Mr J B Congle. The letter stated that the two engines which were ordered last spring were expected to arrive in that city en route for Portland in a few days from the date of the letter. That being the case these engines may be expected to arrive here on the next steamer.

New Cisterns.—The excavation for the two new cisterns now in course of construction is almost finished. It is the intention of the contractor Mr Huntington to construct the cistern at the intersection of Morrison and Lownsdale of brick throughout. The other cistern at the intersection of Oak and Seventh streets will be made [illegible] of plastering cement [illegible].

Tacoma [illegible].—Mr [illegible] returned yesterday from the [illegible] where he has been photographing [illegible] Tacoma. He has produced several [illegible] of the two places, besides [illegible]. The photographs give [illegible] see Tacoma an opportunity [illegible] the expense of traveling.

More Money.—The steamer [illegible] brought up, through Wells Fargo & Co, [illegible] the amount of $331,000. This with [illegible] of the amounts received [illegible] previous, will aggregate fully [illegible]. If there ain't good times this fall then we are very much mistaken.

Festival.—The ladies of Trinity Church will hold a festival this evening at Capt Williams' building at the corner of Alder and Fourth [illegible]. Sales will be made this afternoon from [illegible] o'clock to 5.

It reminded us of old times when we saw Charley Mead and Mr Fuller lugging in so many boxes and bags of solid stuff—coin—last evening at the Express office.

Mr J W Kern one of the proprietors of the Riverside Iron Works was presented a few days ago with a splendid new stove—the first one turned out by that foundry.

Mr J S Keller has just moved into his new meat market corner of First and Madison streets. It is fixed up in capital style and the public should not fail to call and see the shop.

The Salt Lake Tribune thus notices the early closing movement in this city: "A number of the leading Portland business houses have agreed to close their houses at 1 o'clock every Saturday, in order to give their clerks time to wash their feet and clean up for Sunday."

Jones who went out with his fiancee and future mother-in-law yesterday to the dry goods stores says he can't stand that sort of thing again. One must have the patience of Job to endure a sitting of an hour while the clerk pulls down the goods and returns them to their places.

A PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

Quite a large audience assembled in the First Congregational Church last evening to enjoy the concert given by a number of ladies and gentlemen of our city. The entertainment was brief but excellent and was highly appreciated by all present. The concert was opened by the song "Gaily o'er the Ocean," music by Abt, in which the soprano was sustained by Misses Illsley and Yarndley, the alto by Mesdames Hungren and Murray, the tenor by Messrs Morse and Franklin, and the basso by Messrs Morgan and Pattee. All these singers sustained themselves admirably and received the plaudits of the audience. This was followed by a piano solo by Prof Yarndley very finely executed; then a song "The Village Blacksmith" by Mr C Lancaster, whose reputation as a tenor is becoming well established in our city. Miss Cardwell favored the audience with two readings, one "The Maniac" and "The Bells" by Poe, both of which were excellently rendered and were heartily applauded. As an elocutionist Miss Cardwell has no equal in our city yet that we have heard. Her intonation, accent and inflections are almost faultless. She also sang last evening to the delight of the audience the beautiful ballad "When Other Lips and Other Hearts." One of the finest pieces of instrumental music furnished was the Grand Fantasie from La Sonnambula by Professor and Miss Yarndley. Mr Lancaster recited the stirring poem of Horatius at the Bridge in a manner which did credit to his powers of elocution and memory. The song "The Gipsey's Life is a Joyous Life" was then rendered by the full chorus of eight voices, Prof Yarndley at the piano. This was a very pleasing song and was well rendered throughout. The musical and literary part of the entertainment having closed, nearly the entire audience adjourned to the basement where an excellent collation prepared by the ladies of the Church was spread, and of which all partook who desired. The entertainment throughout was one of the most enjoyable features we have attended for a long time.

A Good Thing Duly Appreciated

No beneficial revolution ever goes backward and this maxim is as invariable in medicine as in politics. The advent of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters twenty years ago produced a revolution in the treatment of a large class of ailments and that revolution has ever since been in the full tide of successful experiment. If that tide has turned the proprietors of the celebrated vegetable specific on to fortune it has also borne thousands of human beings who were languishing under the effects of disease, weak and hopeless, out of the depths of despondency into the paradise of health and cheerfulness. It is no exaggeration to say that the vigor, the regularity of habit of body, the good appetite and perfect digestion acquired under the operation of this incomparable tonic and corrective [illegible] people in every walk of life who had been vainly physicked in the usual way owe the blessings of renewed health and the prospect of prolonged life.

COLEMAN'S EUCALYPTUS

Dr. J. S. Coleman's Compound Extract of Eucalyptus is a preparation combining all the valuable medical qualities of the Eucalyptus which is cultivated in nearly every California garden, for [illegible] become the household remedy for all diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER and URINARY [illegible], and SEMINAL WEAKNESS. It seems to have a direct affinity for the GENITO-URINARY ORGANS and their surroundings and cures them by its alterative, healing and balsamic properties [illegible] than any other known remedy.

It is an invaluable remedy for all diseases of the mucous and serous membranes, such as BRONCHIA, HACKING COUGH, NAUSEA DURING PREGNANCY, DYSPEPSIA, LEUCORRHŒA etc.

This preparation is the result of Dr Coleman's experiments with the medicinal [illegible] of the tree in the U S Marine Hospital in San Francisco in 1871 and 1872 where he had unusual facilities for testing the various methods of preparing the remedy and its uses. It can be relied upon as certain to give the [illegible] results and hundreds of testimonials of its efficacy can be seen at his office 405 Ke[illegible] street, San Francisco.

COLEMAN'S DOUBLE EXTRACT OF EUCALYPTUS is a powerful yet harmless, febrifuge and is a special preparation for the treatment of the malarious fevers of our interior. They are warranted to cure any case of FEVER AND AGUE treated with it according to directions, while the baneful results of the usual Quinine and arsenical remedies of those diseases are entirely avoided.

AN OBJECTION TO CARESSING IN PUBLIC

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS [illegible] MEN WHO ARE [illegible]

An Indignant Woman writes as follows to the New York Graphic:

Last Summer I visited Niagara and [illegible] met quantities of newly married couples. I assure you that during the last hour [illegible] ride there were eighteen brides in the same car with me, every one of whom was leaning her head on her husband's shoulder and [illegible] of whom were actually half lying on the [illegible]. They were not forced to do this from exhaustion, for as a rule no sooner were they seated than their heads [illegible] were made to put their arms [illegible]. It is just as bad in our streets [illegible] coming home [illegible] Garden, insist upon half sitting [illegible] men who are with them. Of [illegible] engaged, but that does not make their [illegible] any less offensive. I will [illegible] prefer to behave themselves [illegible] have seen them look [illegible] their female companions [illegible] but they were afraid to make [illegible]. They ought to [illegible] if I was a man, and a girl [illegible] me right [illegible] good shaking [illegible] herself.

I acknowledge that I am a maiden lady, and you may therefore perhaps think me too prudish. I am nothing of the sort but I am a de[illegible], and I want to have other women [illegible] to behave decently in public. Please [illegible] this letter and say a word in defense [illegible] and decency.

A SNAKE STORY.—The Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) [illegible] says: J. C. Beemer, near Colesville [illegible] today, while out huckleberrying one day last week, discovered a worm snake about three feet in length crossing the road. He assaulted his snakeship with a billet of wood [illegible] two or three blows, when the reptile [illegible] spread out, crawling in all directions. Mr. Beemer was greatly astonished, took a [illegible] view of his victim when he discovered it was composed of thousands of little [illegible] varying in length from an inch to [illegible] inches, about the size of a hair, all linked [illegible] in such a manner as to form a com[illegible] three feet in length. On being struck [illegible] club they all became alarmed and en[illegible] to escape, crawling and wriggling in all direction. Mr Beemer concluded to in[illegible] the phenomena, and accordingly re[illegible] a few rods from the scene of battle to [illegible] these peculiar reptiles. In about half [illegible] the little snakes had collected [illegible] into the condition when first discovered [illegible] commenced to move with all [illegible] and characteristics of a black snake [illegible] a large anthill, near by. On gaining [illegible] of their march those seemingly [illegible] of little reptiles disbanded and com[illegible] a furious assault on the occupants of the little hill, where a spirited battle was [illegible] the ants for about fifteen min[illegible] the possession of the ant eggs stored [illegible]. The snakes came off victorious and [illegible] again en masse into a greatly en[illegible], resembling a large snake to be [illegible] twice its original size gorged with ant [illegible]

[illegible] DARWINISM.—A writer in The Old [illegible] thus [illegible] against the Darwinian [illegible] "The expense to science in the admis[illegible] Darwin's hypothesis is the negation of [illegible] the entire reconstruction of geol[illegible] says: 'Bring one fact to sustain [illegible]' Darwin replies, 'All history is [illegible] on the dial of time.' 'One fact,' [illegible] geology, 'from our great hortus siccus [illegible] the [illegible] of the past a single [illegible] in a transition state.' 'Your [illegible] but shreds, the whole coal forma[illegible] leaf caught in the wind from [illegible] away on the autumn gale. [illegible] and Silurian rocks, with their [illegible] groups, are but a little [illegible] on the shores of one or two of [illegible] which have passed leaving [illegible] also imperfect, [illegible] it invalidate the great [illegible] My theory [illegible] It explodes the old [illegible] It admits but [illegible] of all the past. There was but one [illegible] this an order of things. It [illegible] a herring, or a lingula it [illegible] point. This was [illegible] and there was but one; and this [illegible] That cell, launched by [illegible] received one injunc[illegible] and multiply.' Then it [illegible] stars sang together' and the [illegible] song was, 'Struggle for life, [illegible] or die.'"

[illegible] 18.—Chief Justice Cockburne, [illegible] the hearing in the Tichborne [illegible] said that if the claimant [illegible] his travels throughout the country [illegible] himself as a martyr, it would be [illegible] of the court to put a stop to the scan[illegible] him to jail. Every Judge [illegible] with the case has been [illegible] if a verdict [illegible] should be brought in [illegible] warned the claimant that if [illegible] speech or appeal before the [illegible] would be surely imprisoned. New [illegible] made every day of the trial and [illegible] in the case increases.

The Commer[illegible] San Francisco, thinks that unrestricted [illegible] is very apt to open the door for admission [illegible] such as flooded the West [illegible] to the war. It is alleged by the friends of [illegible] that banking should be as [illegible] as any other business. That is a [illegible] which however good in theory [illegible] always so in practice. With equal propriety it has been urged with much emphasis that the trade in [illegible] should be as open to public competition as any [illegible] line of purchase and that American mer[illegible] should be possessed of the right to obtain [illegible] registers for foreign built ships bought by [illegible] has always wisely refused this right [illegible] all who are interested in the growth and [illegible] of our merchant marine are agreed would have [illegible] seriously detrimental to our maritime growth. The question of free [illegible] cannot be discussed in the abstract [illegible] must wait until its features are reveal[illegible] the proposed measure.

Our home finances are still manifestly close [illegible] though lenders seem to have [illegible] the market, rates are without important change. They [illegible] too high when the supply of funds was abun[illegible]dant, and are the same now that supply is short [illegible]

In regard to these periodical and frequent seasons of stringency wherein business men of small means are always the greatest sufferers, the following from a leading Chicago journal is suggestive:

"Manufacturing is needed to make [illegible] a solid reality. She ought to supply the Northwest and even the Southwest with manufactures [illegible]

Precisely. And that which is true [illegible] is equally true of other localities. Here [illegible] the great leak in our ship of state [illegible] of foreign manufactures which we [illegible] produced for ourselves. It is a well known fact that manufacturing communities [illegible] almost always wealthy, while those [illegible] are dependent on other nations for manufactures are generally poor. With us the immediate im[illegible]perative question is—shall we supply our own [illegible] or purchase abroad?

Our [illegible] are abundant and with the estab[illegible] of manufactories to develop them there is no [illegible] why our State should not attain to a po[illegible] to defy these shocks of financial disaster.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, near COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street [illegible] Commercial, San Francisco [illegible] and those requiring his services [illegible] nor money in seeking [illegible] returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid [illegible] and disgusted faces and their broken [illegible] constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands [illegible] until death [illegible] Let parents guardians friends, attend to the [illegible] suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted [illegible] those who are interested in the welfare of [illegible] friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the [illegible] of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness [illegible] the loins, weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid [illegible] coughs consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific [illegible] of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will [illegible] satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are laboring under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to [illegible] patient a written instrument, binding him to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity to any part of the [illegible] with full and plain directions. By [illegible] Dollars coin in registered letter through the [illegible] office or through Wells, Fargo & Co [illegible] medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, [illegible] the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, news [illegible] carriers intelligence office keepers etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many [illegible] for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Postoffice Box 1,957. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN.
